Lessons in Fire Safety in Class 3

Class 3 had a visit from the fire service this week— learning about being safe in the home and how to keep themselves safe. They also found out about the fire service and their role to help keep the community safe. Lots of lovely pics of the children in fire helmets!

National Industrial Action— NEU teaching union: 1st February

A letter was sent out on Wednesday this week confirming that school will be open and any classes affected by the strike action will be covered by staff in school. This is national action called by the NEU in a dispute with the Government about pay. Letters will come out a week in advance prior to any other days of potential strike action.

NSPCC Rockstar Day! Friday 3rd February

Time to plan your outfits—1 weeks today!
