What's been going on this week?

Lovely to see everyone back after the half term break—a busy half term planned with lots of events alongside all the fantastic learning!

Class 1 have a new art theme all linked to circles! They have had lots of fun inside and out!

Village Hall Christmas Fair

A date to note in the village—Saturday 2nd December at 2pm. Stalls and Santa so do pop along to start or even finish your Christmas shopping!

Children in Need and Anti-bullying week

Next week there are 2 events which we will be taking part in. On Monday, can the children come in odd socks (no money) as part of Anti-bullying week, which we will cover in PSHE through the week, celebrating difference. On Friday can the children wear something spotty—either full spots or spotty socks with uniform or a spotty t-shirt etc. Bring along £1 donation for Children in need. During PE in the week the children will also complete a 'Bearpees' challenge—a take on burpees for those of you gym minded!!

Year 6 residential to Arthog

Our Year 6 children have had a fabulous week in Arthog and will be back today very tired and with a lot of washing! Lots of pictures on the website.

Christmas Events!

Please notice that we have now put into the diary a range of additional Christmas dates, so please do make a note. The Carol Service has been in for a while, and the theatre trips, but the following are new dates:

Friday 8th December—Christmas Mufti and bring in something for our lovely hampers which we raffle at the Carol Service

Wednesday 13th December—Class 1 Christmas nativity at 9.30am. Up to 3 adults per family please.

Wednesday 13th December—Christmas disco for the children 6.00—7.30pm

Friday 17th December—Reindeer Run—come dressed as a reindeer, join in the fun run and bring a donation

Wednesday 20th December—Christmas lunch and wear your Christmas jumper!
