Weekly round up—Snow!!

What a week! The children may love the snow, but I am certainly not a fan in school!!! Thank you for persevering and getting your children into school, especially on Wednesday. Not a day to repeat!

Works well for Class 4 though as their writing text for the next few weeks is The Snowman!!

Class 2 have had a lovely snowy Geography walk in the village—lots of geography this term with a focus on the local area. Gorgeous pics!!

Rodington—Carols by the Tree

If you live in or near to Rodington please do support the village and go along to an event tonight with stalls, carols, rides and food. The weather is set to dry up so hopefully it will be a lovely evening! Flyer attached with times and details.

Christmas Smile

Thank you if you have already been able to bring in a small gift for our Christmas Smile charity—some of you have cleared out your present drawers!! If you haven't yet donated, and would like to, there is a big box in the entrance.

If you are able, can you please bring in one small gift for a child of any age, or an adult or elderly person. It needs to be unwrapped. We will then organise to take the gifts to the centre so that they can be organised. Donations by 29th November please—that is next Friday!

A few things coming up...

Christmas events are all in the diary:

Some forms have been sent out this week for the following:

Christmas Panto in school on Tuesday 17th December

Christmas dinner and wear a Christmas jumper on Wednesday 18th December
 Please do respond to these as soon as possible.

Attendance

Snow may have affected a few class attendances this week!

This week: Class 2 has hit the magic 100% - whoop!! Well done Class 2.
