Our Leavers

What a brilliant year 6 group!

Yesterday we said our farewells—some laughs and a few tears as we reminisced about their journey through school. Lots of photographs to laugh about to show how much they have changed (or they haven't) since their first school days!

There are 19 fabulous individuals in this cohort—and we are all really proud of them—of their achievements in the broadest form, and of the young people they have become. They have the best attitudes and skills ready to tackle secondary school and new challenges. A sad goodbye to some of our families too—some of whom have been with us for many years! Thank you for a great partnership!

The end of a year!

We probably say it every year—but it has really flown by. Thank you for your support, kind words, cards and gifts to all of the staff—your thoughts are very much appreciated. We do hope you get some rest and family time over the holidays—and appreciate it can be hard to juggle with work.

We will see you all on Wednesday 4th September

A few memories of the year!

Autumn term

Bookings for clubs are now closed. Fitness and KS2 Football are full but there are limited spaces on others—so please email the office in September if you now want a space. Chill and Breakfast has spaces, and can be booked as you need. Advance notice is preferred but there is usually space on the day.

Bus list—a form was sent home for you to let us know about any bus transport next year.

Note dates for Harvest and Carol Services already in for next year!

PE / Forest school days for next term

Class 1—Tues / Fri (forest school) Class 2—Mon / Wed

Class 3—Thurs / Fri; Class 4—Wed / Thurs; Class 5—Mon / Fri

Class 2 Forest school will be as a full day each half term—and email will come home about this nearer the time!

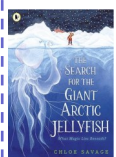

High Ercall Baby News! We are pleased to tell you that Mrs Ramsdale has had a baby boy—Zach. He is gorgeous and they are doing really well. I'm sure she will pop in to see everyone in the new school year.
