Children in need

Just a reminder that it is Children in Need next Friday 14th November.

Please can the children bring in coins—silver and bronze ones for our Pudsey coin challenge. We want to fill a Pudsey with coins if we can.

The children can also come in spotty clothing / t-shirt and bring in a donation for this too. Hopefully we can raise some money for such a worthwhile charity.

Poppies!

We still have a few items to sell on Monday / Tuesday—if you would like to send in any further donations.

Monday 10th November—Odd socks day

On Monday, in recognition of Anti-bullying Week, we would like the children to wear odd socks. This is the message that everyone is unique and it is definitely okay to be different. The mismatched socks visually represent individuality and help promote kindness, acceptance, and tolerance, sending a message that people should not be bullied for who they are.

Michael Rosen Poetry Day

On Thursday next week, we will join Michael Rosen for a poetry party—to celebrate being creative and enjoying poems. We have lots of fun activities planned including joining a live lesson with the great poet himself.

Please do ask your child about the day—and maybe even look for some of his poems to read at home that day.

Our 5R Stars!

A brilliant and busy start to the half term as ever!
